

YOUR CHOICE AT THESE CITY COUNCIL ELECTIONS...

Better services with Westdene & Hove Park Conservatives...

OR

More of the same under Labour & Greens...

- Invest in parks – with a £1 million boost to Hove Park facilities, including toilet refurbishment.
- Protect family homes – with our policy to make it more difficult to convert houses to flats.
- Fix rubbish, recycling and weeds – with a Conservative 'common-sense' City Council.

- Labour & Greens want to bring back congestion-causing Old Shoreham Road cycle lanes.
- Labour voted to make it easier to convert family homes to flats.
- Labour stopped weeding pavements and Greens halved your verge cuttings.

WHICH WILL YOU VOTE FOR ON 4TH MAY?

Back the local team who will deliver for you

Vote Conservative

REMEMBER:

To use your Three votes on Thursday 4th May to back the local team that will deliver for you

Vote for Samer Bagaeen – so that we can protect the character of our area and stop the loss of family homes.

Vote for Emma Hogan – so that we can invest in parks and facilities, including toilet refurbishment.

Vote for Ivan Lyons – so that we can fix rubbish and recycling collections and rid pavements of weeds.

Vote for your three Conservative candidates on Thursday 4th May so that we can continue our positive work for Westdene & Hove Park.
